

Trustee addendum to SH&DCRA Constitution

The property held by Trustees is held by them on trust for the members of the Association and cannot be sold or alienated from the Association without the consent of the Committee of the Association.

Trustees can be members of the Association, or not, as the Association decides.

See 12 of the Constitution:

- There will be four Trustees of the Association.
- The Trustees must be appointed by the committee and the property of the Association (other than cash which must be under the control of the Treasurer) must be vested in them to be dealt with by them as the committee from time to time directs by resolution, and an entry in the minute book is conclusive evidence of a resolution.
- The Trustees may be indemnified by risk and expends out of the Association property
- The Trustees hold office until death or resignation or until removed from office by a resolution of the committee, which may be for any reason which may seem sufficient to a majority of the members of the committee present and voting at any meeting, remove any Trustee from the office of Trustee.
- Where by reason of the death, resignation or removal of a Trustee, a new Trustee needs to be appointed, or if the committee deems it expedient to appoint an additional Trustee or additional Trustees, the committee may by resolution nominate the person or persons to be appointed as the new Trustee or Trustees.
- To give effect to a nomination:-
 - i. The Chairman is nominated as the person to appoint new Trustees for the club within the meaning of the Trustee Act 1925 Section 36 and any other statutory provision to that effect and;
 - ii. The Chairman must by deed appoint the person or persons nominated by the committee as the new Trustee or Trustees of the association and
 - iii. The provisions of the Trustee Act 1925 and any other statutory enactment to that effect apply to any appointment
 - iv. Any statement of fact in a Deed of Appointment of new Trustees, in favour of a person dealing bona fide and for value with the club or the committee is conclusive evidence of the fact so stated.
